SUMMARY OF TWENTY FIFTH QUARTERLY INTERIM APPLICATION OF CONWAY, DEL GENIO, GRIES & CO., LLC ("CDG") FOR COMPENSATION FOR SERVICES RENDERED AND REIMBURSEMENT OF ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES INCURRED AS FINANCIAL ADVISOR FOR THE OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF ASBESTOS PROPERTY DAMAGE CLAIMANTS
FOR THE PERIOD FROM JULY 1, 2007 THROUGH JUNE 30, 2008.

Conway, Del Genio, Gries & Co., LLC ("CDG") files this twenty fifth quarterly interim application (the "Application") for allowance of compensation for financial advisory services provided to the Official Committee of Asbestos Property Damage Claimants of W.R Grace & Co., et al. (the "PD Committee") commencing July 1, 2007 (the "Commencement Date") through and including June 30, 2008 (the "Compensation Period") and reimbursement of its actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, and respectfully represents:

Introduction

1. Pursuant to the Order of the Court dated October 22, 2001, (the "Retention Order"), CDG was retained as financial advisor to the PD Committee to perform services set forth in our affidavit dated June 15, 2001.

2. By this Application, CDG requests an interim allowance for professional services rendered during the Compensation Period and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Compensation Period. CDG is a financial advisory firm specializing in reorganization and restructuring of troubled companies. CDG's senior professionals have extensive experience with the reorganization and restructuring of troubled companies.

Background

3. On April 2, 2001 (the "Filing Date"), the above-captioned debtors (the "Debtors") filed with this Court a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors operated its business and managed its properties as debtors in possession.

4. On April 2, 2001, the Court entered its Order directing the joint administration of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases (the "Consolidated Cases").

5. On April 12, 2001, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed the PD Committee in this case consisting of Mr. Marco Barbanti, Princeton University, Pacific Freeholds and Prudential Insurance Company. The PD Committee held its organizational meeting on that day and selected Mr. Marco Barbanti to serve as its Chairman. Thereafter, the PD Committee was expanded to include Paul Price, Anderson Memorial Hospital and the Catholic Archdiocese of New Orleans. The PD Committee subsequently elected Mr. Dan Speights, representative of Anderson Memorial Hospital, as Co-Chairman of the PD Committee.

6. The PD Committee represents the interests of the asbestos property damage claimants in the Consolidated Cases.

7. On April 27, 2001, the PD Committee chose to retain CDG as its financial advisor. By application, dated July 6, 2001, the Applicant sought Court approval for its retention as financial advisor to the PD Committee nunc pro tunc to April 27, 2001.

8. Pursuant to the Retention Order, the Court authorized the PD Committee to retain CDG as financial advisor at a rate of $150,000.00 per month for twelve months and $100,000.00 per month thereafter, plus reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses nunc pro tunc to April 27, 2001, pursuant to Sections 1103(a) and 328(a) of title 11 of the United States Code. The Retention Order conditioned the Applicant's compensation on approval by this Court.

9. On October 26, 2001, CDG requested a first interim allowance of $620,000.00 as compensation for professional services rendered from April 27, 2001 through September 30, 2001 (the "First Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $14,376.21 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the First Interim Compensation Period. No objections to the fee and expense request for the First Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

10. CDG requested a second interim allowance of $150,000.00 as compensation for professional services rendered from October 1, 2001 through October 31, 2001 (the "Second Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $1,657.00 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Second Interim Compensation Period. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Second Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

11. CDG requested a third interim allowance of $300,000.00 as compensation for professional services rendered from November 1, 2001 through December 31, 2001 (the "Third Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $2,406.91 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Third Interim Compensation Period. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Third Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

12. CDG requested a fourth interim allowance of $450,000.00 as compensation for professional services rendered from January 1, 2002 through March 31, 2002 (the "Fourth Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $4,809.71 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Fourth Interim Compensation Period. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Fourth Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

13. CDG requested a fifth interim allowance of $28,420 as compensation for professional services rendered from April 1, 2002 through June 30, 2002 (the "Fifth Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $2,919.16 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Fifth Interim Compensation Period. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Fifth Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

14. CDG requested a sixth interim allowance of $21,808.75 as compensation for professional services rendered from July 1, 2002 through September 30, 2002 (the "Sixth Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $855.33 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Sixth Interim Compensation Period. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Sixth Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

15. CDG requested a seventh interim allowance of $13,987.12 as compensation for professional services rendered from October 1, 2002 through December 31, 2002 (the "Seventh Interim Compensation Period"). CDG, having incurred no actual expenses in providing services in connection with the general bankruptcy case during the Seventh Interim Compensation Period, requested no reimbursement therefor. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Seventh Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

16. CDG requested an eighth interim allowance of $173,154.00 as compensation for professional services rendered from January 1, 2003 through March 31, 2003 (the "Eighth Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $838.02 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Eighth Interim Compensation Period. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Eighth Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

17. CDG requested a ninth interim allowance of $240,847.00 as compensation for professional services rendered from April 1, 2003 through June 30, 2003 (the "Ninth Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $3,237.13 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Ninth Interim Compensation Period. As of the date of this filing, the fee and expense request for the Ninth Interim Compensation Period is pending and no objections have been filed. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Ninth Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

18. CDG requested a tenth interim allowance of $300,000.00 as compensation for professional services rendered from July 1, 2003 through September 30, 2003 (the "Tenth Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $1,689.24 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Tenth Interim Compensation Period. As of the date of this filing, the fee and expense request for the Tenth Interim Compensation Period is pending and no objections have been filed. No objections to the fee and expense request for the Tenth Interim Compensation Period were filed. CDG has received full payment of previously requested fees and expenses.

19. CDG requested an eleventh interim allowance of $300,000.00 as compensation for professional services rendered from October 1, 2003 through December 31, 2003 (the "Eleventh Interim Compensation Period"). CDG also requested an allowance of $20.00 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Twenty Fourth Interim Compensation Period.

33. CDG requests a twenty fifth interim allowance of $100,000.00¹ as compensation for professional services rendered during the Compensation Period. CDG also requests an allowance of $304.83 as reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses CDG incurred during the Compensation Period. CDG, in its normal course of business, bills its clients a flat monthly fee and does not charge by the hour. Thus, CDG does not normally keep time records. However, for the benefit of the Court, CDG is recording its hourly time and has provided summaries of the time spent by professionals during the Compensation Period, attached hereto as Exhibit A. CDG has provided supporting detail of the expenses incurred, attached hereto as Exhibit B.

34. During the Compensation Period, CDG made itself available to address the needs, issues and questions of the Committee with respect to the Debtors' operations, business performance and financial results.

35. There is no agreement or understanding between CDG and any other person, other than members, associates and employees of CDG, for the sharing of compensation received or to be received for services rendered in connection with these proceedings.

36. CDG has not entered into any agreement, express or implied, with any party in interest, including the PD Committee, the Debtors, other creditors, or any representative of any of them, or with any attorney for such party in interest, for the purpose of fixing the fees or other compensation to be paid to CDG for services rendered in connection herewith, from the assets of the Debtors.

Services Provided

37. During the First Interim Compensation Period, CDG provided the PD Committee with experience and expertise in dealing with matters relating to the Debtors' businesses and historical operating trends, the Debtors' business plan, industry trends, proposed acquisitions by the Debtors, the Debtors' employee retention and incentive plans, trends for asbestos litigation and corresponding insurance coverage as well as a number of other items. CDG also assisted the PD Committee in beginning its ongoing investigation of asset divestitures, which occurred prior to the Chapter 11 filing. CDG actively participated in meetings and conference calls with the PD Committee and provided the PD Committee members with observations, advice and guidance on various matters and issues. CDG also responded to numerous questions and information requests from the PD Committee by investigating and reporting CDG's findings back to the PD Committee.

38. During the Second Interim Compensation Period, CDG provided the PD Committee with experience and expertise in analyzing the Debtors' business plan, analyzing operating results, proposed acquisitions by the Debtors, as well as assisting the PD Committee in beginning its ongoing investigation of asset divestitures, which occurred prior to the Chapter 11 filing. CDG actively participated in conference calls with the PD Committee and provided the PD Committee members with observations, advice and guidance on various matters and issues.

39. During the Third Interim Compensation Period, CDG provided the PD Committee with experience and expertise in analyzing operating results and assisting the PD Committee in its ongoing investigation of asset divestitures, which occurred prior to the Chapter 11 filing. CDG completed and provided to the committee a comprehensive report reviewing and analyzing a historical divestiture, with particular emphasis on the merits of fraudulent transfer litigation. CDG also began preparing another report analyzing a second divestiture. CDG also actively participated in conference calls with the PD Committee, provided the PD Committee members with observations, advice and guidance on various matters and issues and attended court hearings.

40. During the Fourth Interim Compensation Period, CDG prepared two substantial reports for the PD Committee. One report was on the Sealed Air transaction (consummated in 1998) and the other report was on the Fresenius Medical Care transaction (consummated in 1996). For each transaction, CDG reviewed all documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission that we deemed to be related to the transactions (meaning those documents filed within a period of time either before or after each transaction). Such documents included, but were not limited to, purchase agreements, bank agreements, S-4 filings, 10K and 10Q filings, and press releases. In addition, we performed ancillary research for other pertinent transaction information including security analyst reports and various other items. All analyses were based upon publicly available information.

41. In addition, CDG reviewed, analyzed and reported to the PD Committee on the Debtors' current operating results, potential acquisitions, and the employee retention and benefit plans, and has actively participated on weekly committee conference calls with the PD Committee. CDG actively keeps the PD Committee apprised of all business issues and activities of the Debtors.

42. During the Fifth Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, proposed acquisitions by the Debtors, and other matters and issues as they arose.

43. During the Sixth Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, key employee compensation programs proposed by the Debtors, and other matters and issues as they arose.

44. During the Seventh Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, key employee compensation programs proposed by the Debtors, and other matters and issues as they arose.

45. During the Eighth Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, key employee compensation programs proposed by the Debtors, and other matters and issues as they arose.

46. During the Ninth Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, proposed acquisitions by the Debtors, and other matters and issues as they arose.

47. During the Tenth Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, proposed acquisitions by the Debtors, preliminary discussions related to the Debtors' plan of reorganization, and other matters and issues as they arose.

48. During the Eleventh Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, a proposed acquisition by the Debtors, engaged in preliminary discussions related to the Debtors' plan of reorganization, and participated in other matters and issues as they arose.

49. During the Twelfth Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, a proposed acquisition by the Debtors, engaged in preliminary discussions related to the Debtors' plan of reorganization, and participated in other matters and issues as they arose.

50. During the Thirteenth Interim Compensation Period, CDG advised the PD Committee with respect to current operating results, a proposed acquisition by the Debtors, engaged in preliminary discussions related to the Debtors' plan of reorganization, and participated in other matters and issues as they arose.
